

AGENDA

TRRG Initiative---Sustainable Neighborhoods through Planning
Results of Area/Neighborhood Plans Self-Assessments
July 30, 6:00-8:00 P.M.

6:00—Welcome, purpose of meeting; introductions--Bonnie

6:10 Numerical results

- A. Number of NA's who provided data—age of plans by decades--Bonnie
- B. Changes on the ground--Bonnie
- C. Changes in COT policy--Bonnie

Facilitators have yellow first page response data sheet to pass out at table after Bonnie

- D. Overall conclusion data—Dan

Facilitators have orange second page response data to pass out at table after Dan.

- E. Reasons why revisions are needed--Ruth

6:45 Break—refreshments—List specific reasons for revisions on charts provided--Rebecca

7:00 Ideas Too Good to Lose—Rebecca

- Topics—Preservation of Neighborhood Residential Character
- Office/Commercial Development
- Transportation—within and outside neighborhood
- Environment

Facilitators have copies of the details to pass out at table for reps to take home to read, share with N's, and have as reference for future meetings after Rebecca

7:20 Tweet-like Message to Mayor and Council--Ruth

Facilitators at table guide attendees in writing message to Mayor and Council—Completion of this message: “After self-assessing our area/neighborhood plans, we want you to know in 50 words or less. Facilitators go around table asking each person what ideas come to mind. Look for consensus. Craft the concise message. Share the message each table produced with the entire group.

7:50 What comes next? Bonnie

Next Meeting-- Oct. 1—Explore options moving forward. Focus on Mayor/Council input and how to use “Ideas Too Good to Lose.” Meeting will be open to anyone in community who is interested in the topic, Sustainable Neighborhoods through Planning.

Announcement of TRRG/Ward 6 Co-sponsored Educational Forum, “Understanding Form-Based Code,” being planned for mid-to-late September.